

Current Oregon House Districts: Estimated Population Balance as of 2019*

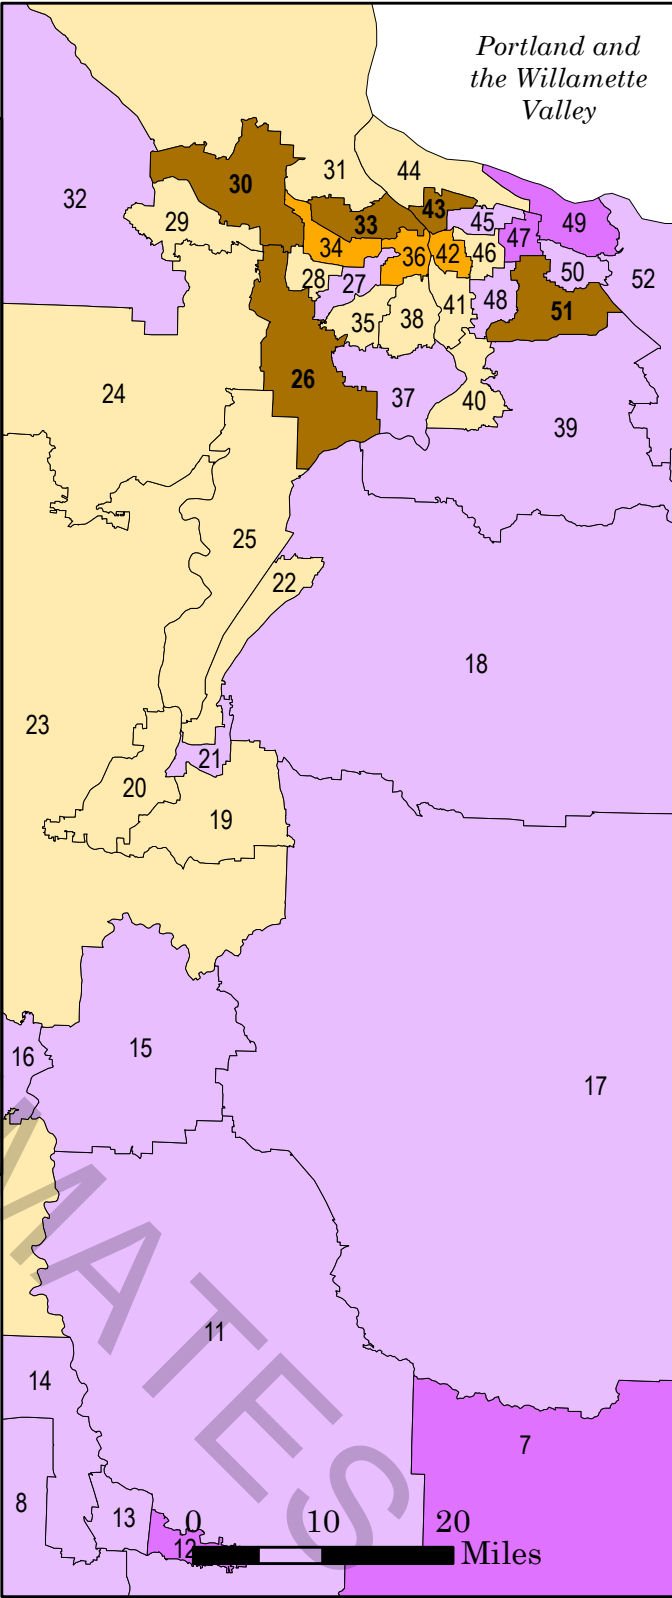

Oregon House Districts: Average Population Estimate: 68,830*

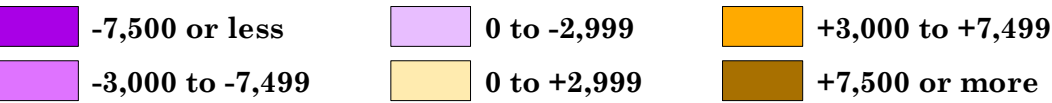

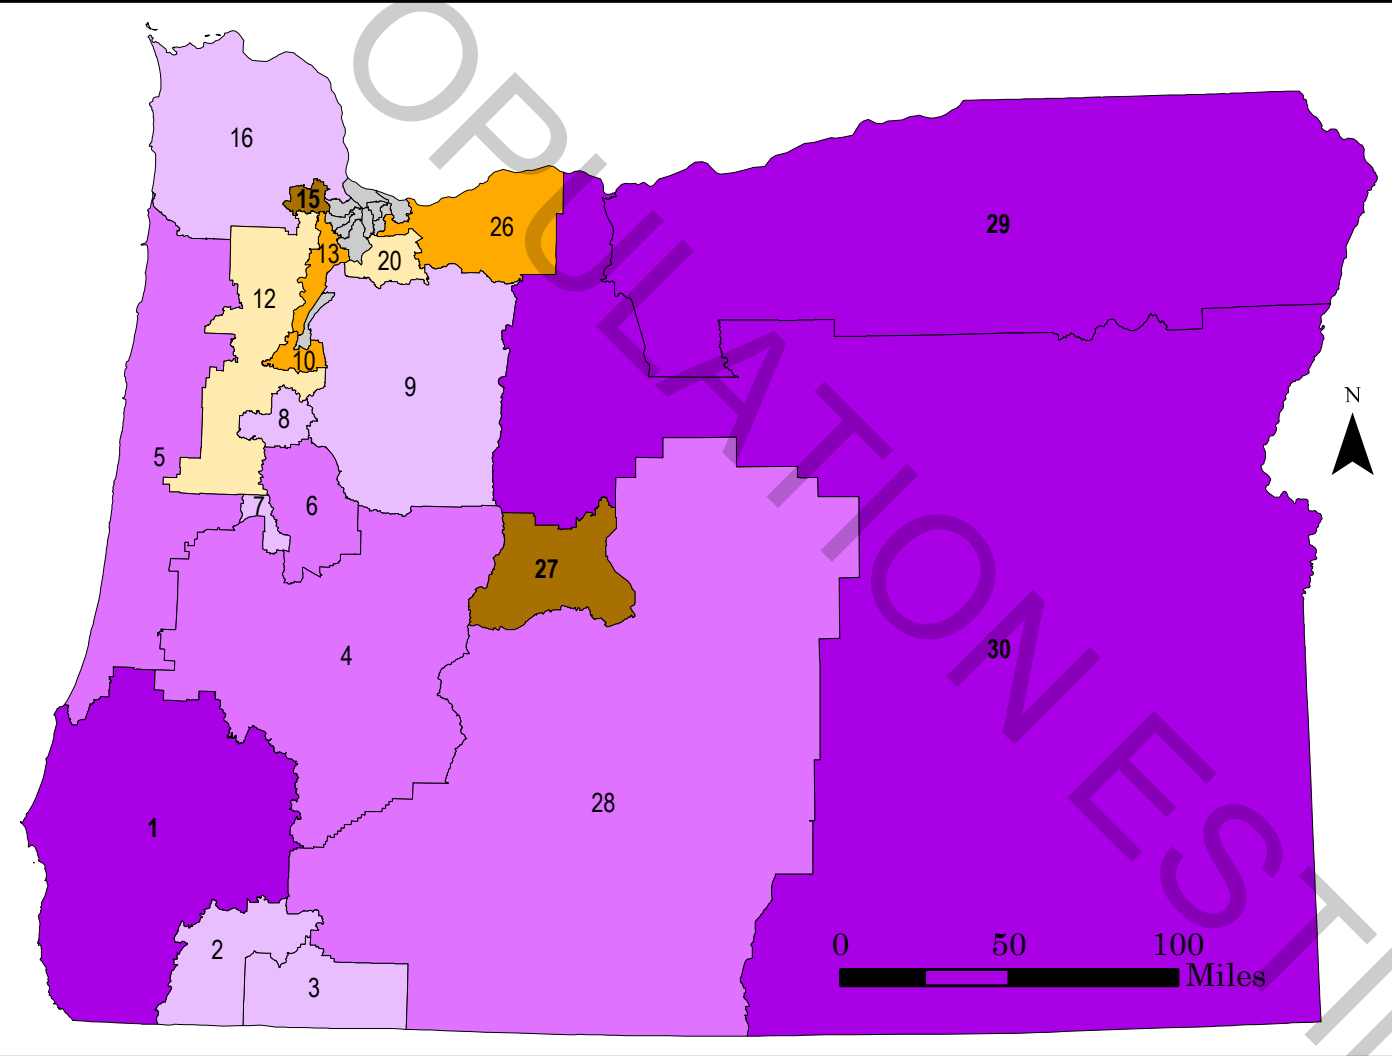

Purple districts have estimated populations below average.
Orange districts have estimated populations above average.

Map created March 2021 by Legislative Policy and Research Office. Data from Census' American Community Survey (2019 5-year estimates). Margins of error not shown.

NOTE*: These are estimates; Census 2020 numbers may be different.

Current Oregon Senate Districts: Estimated Population Balance as of 2019*

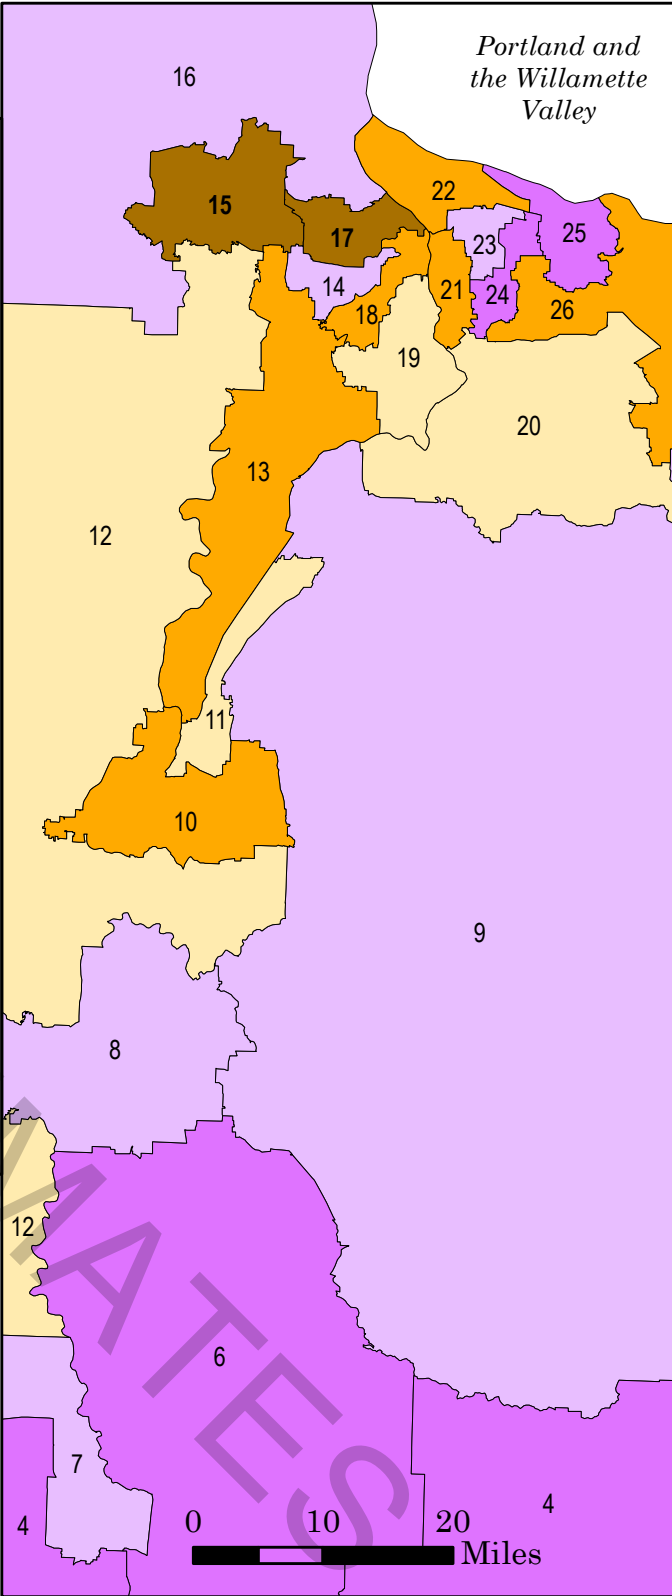

Oregon Senate Districts: Average Population Estimate: 137,660*

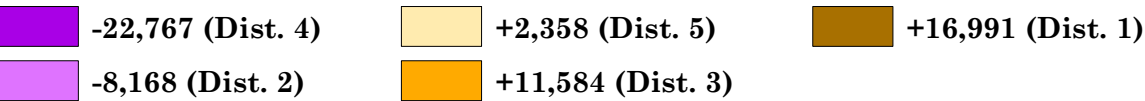

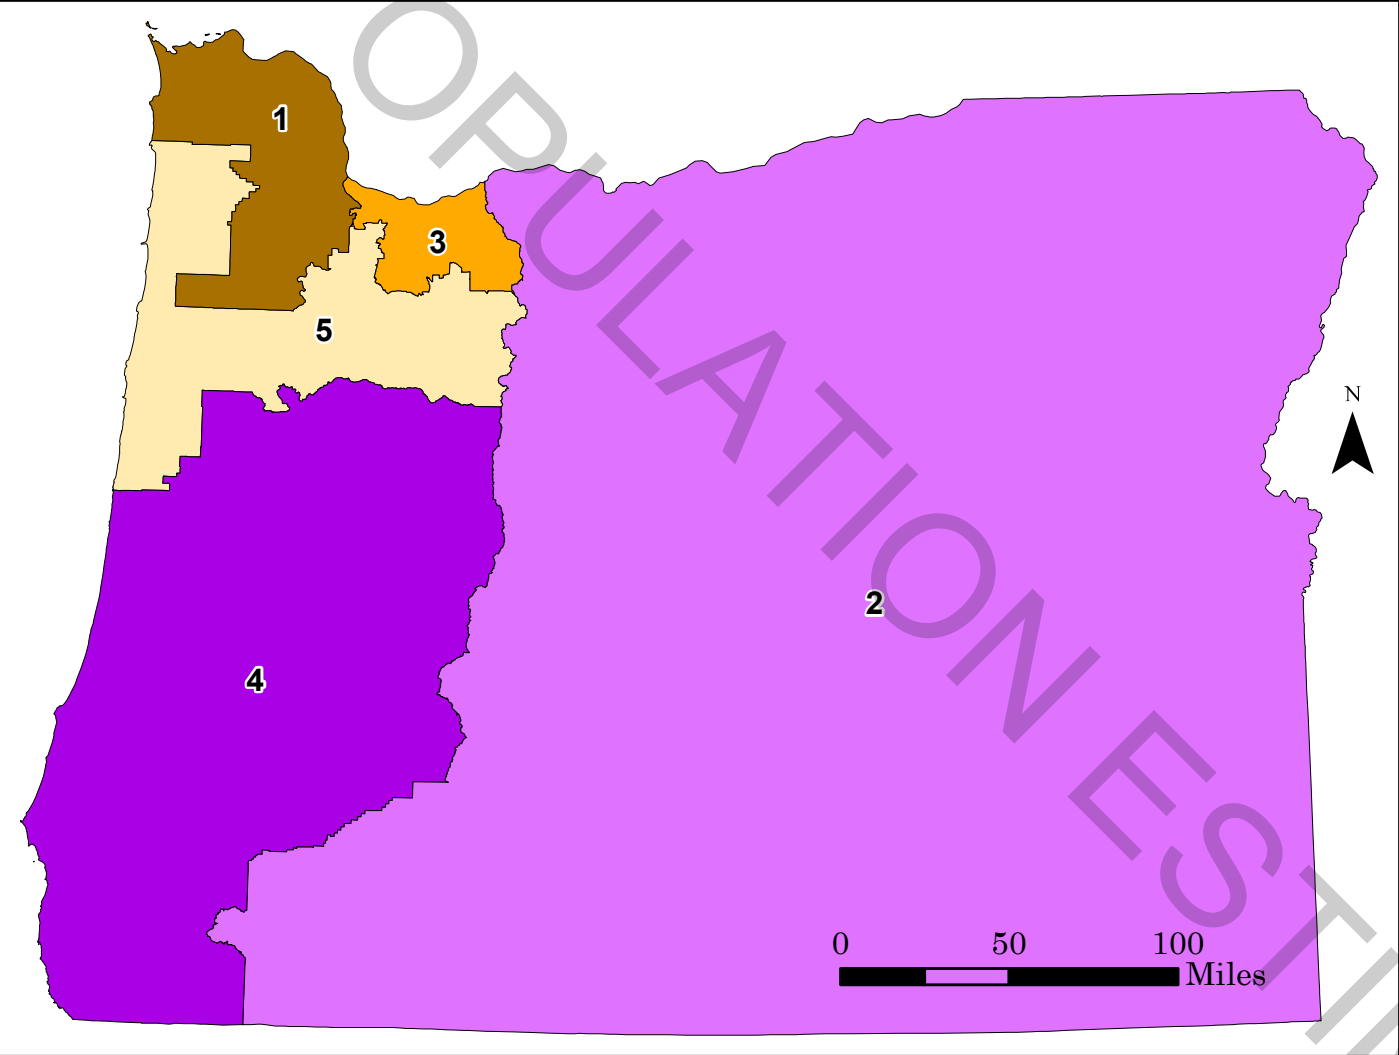

Purple districts have estimated populations below average.
Orange districts have estimated populations above average.

Map created March 2021 by Legislative Policy and Research Office. Data from Census' American Community Survey (2019 5-year estimates). Margins of error not shown.

NOTE*: These are estimates; Census 2020 numbers may be different.

Current Oregon Congressional Districts: Estimated Population Balance as of 2019*

Congressional Districts: Average Population Estimate: 825,961*

Purple districts have estimated populations below average.
Orange districts have estimated populations above average.

Map created March 2021 by Legislative Policy and Research Office. Data from Census' American Community Survey (2019 5-year estimates). Margins of error not shown.

NOTE*: These are estimates; Census 2020 numbers may be different.

